

Pacific Pines is a fast growing residential estate located about 21 km north of Surfers Paradise. The suburb now offers a community centre and well manicured parkland and recreational areas including Central Park by Central Lake with multi purpose sports fields. Neighbouring suburbs are Gaven, Oxenford and Helensvale.

Residential

Pacific Pines is a popular area for families looking to purchase homes. Land is still available and many people are purchasing house and land packages in the suburb.

Shopping

There are stores in the area that cater to locals everyday needs. Helensvale's Westfield Shopping Centre is 10 minutes by car and has a Kmart, Target, Woolworths and Aldi among many other specialty stores. Other local shopping centres are located in surrounding suburbs and Harbour Town Shopping Centre, an outlet having selling brand names at a discounted price, is a 15 minute drive.

Schools

Primary: Pacific Pines, Gaven, Jubilee College (Christian), Oxenford, Helensvale. Secondary: Pacific Pines, Helensvale. Colleges: Saint Stephen's, Coomera Anglican, Assisi Catholic College, AB Paterson, Upper Coomera State College.

Retirement

The Gardens on Lindfield, a resort-style retirement village, has one and two-bedroom homes available.

Medical

Pacific Health Medical Centre, Pacific Pines Town Centre.

Transport

A number of local buses run through Pacific Pines and the Helensvale train station is a five-minute drive. There is easy access to the M1 Motorway for those looking to head to Brisbane or Coolangatta.

Recreation

This area is well located close to shopping centres as well as three of the Gold Coast's famous theme parks, Dreamworld, Movie World and Wet 'n' Wild. The Gold Coast City Marina is located nearby in Coomera with 200 water berths and everything needed for boating available. The Waterlife Restaurant & Café is available for a coffee, meal or functions. Numerous restaurants and cafes are situated at Westfield Helensvale, about five minutes away, as well as Options Tavern.

Golf

Helensvale Golf Club has an 18-hole, 70 par golf course that welcomes visitors both experienced and those new to the sport. The Gold Coast Country Club is an 18-hole championship course located next to the Helensvale train station. Visitors are welcome to enjoy the facilities including a fully licensed bar and bistro.